

Sorbonne Université Paris

Muriel Bautz
m.bautz@tum.de

Accommodation

- Crous student residence
- Around 440 € per month (warm)
- Studio apartment with small kitchen, good metro connection
- Available to Erasmus students via Sorbonne's MoveOn

Administrative Info

- Semester starts 1. September
- No real break between semesters
- Very good French skills necessary (!)
- Language course are offered

University

- No TUMonline, signing up for classes in person with a professor
- Small classes, active participation encouraged
- Little to no homework
- No cheat sheets in exams
- Grading system :  $x/20$  points;  $x < 10 \Rightarrow$  fail (20 points basically impossible)

Tips

- Get aid from the caf (gives you money for rent)

<https://caf.fr/allocataires/aides-et-demarches/droits-et-prestations/logement/les-aides-personnelles-au-logement>

- Meals (crous) are 1€ for étudiants boursier (Erasmus counts)
- Learn colloquial French (films, maybe audiobook, podcasts) (!)
- Join Erasmus groups, follow their Instagram accounts

https://www.instagram.com/erasmuspartyinparis/?utm\_source=ig\_web\_button\_share\_sheet&igshid=OGQ5ZDc2ODk2ZA==

https://www.instagram.com/parismus\_sorbonne/?utm\_source=ig\_web\_button\_share\_sheet&igshid=OGQ5ZDc2ODk2ZA==

What to do

- Lots of Museums (free for EU residents under 26)
- Get food at lunch (formule midi), it's rather cheap
- Enjoy Paris nightlife (Supersonic : free live music, Glazart or La Gare Le Gore : Techno)
- Go hang out in Bars or Cafés with friends (Café Populaire is affordable)
- If it's warm : picnic at the Quais de la Seine
- Walk around the city (there are free Erasmus walking tours -> group)